

County News

MALTA BEND

Esq. J. M. Brady died Tuesday afternoon after a short illness. The funeral service was held at the M. E. church Thursday morning by Dr. J. M. Carter.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lunbeck Sunday, a daughter.

Mrs. Nellie Dicus, of Chicago, is visiting Mrs. William Brown and relatives of this community.

Miss Blanche Fulton entertained the Tuesday club Tuesday afternoon with progressive finch and dainty refreshments were served.

S. B. Jeter left Monday morning for Richmond Virginia to attend the Confederate reunion and will take in the Jamestown exposition.

Miss Fannie Mae Robinson returned Saturday from Lexington.

Mrs. Kera Douglas and Mrs. Chas. Fulton went to Lexington to attend the Central College Alumni reunion Wednesday.

Misses Marion Brown and Bettie Douglas are in Marshall this week attending the Missouri Valley commencement exercises.

Mrs. Chas. Lunbeck was a Marshall visitor Tuesday.

S. T. Wilson was in Booneville Monday on a business trip.

Miss Hattie Grubb, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. M. Rozelle, returned to her home at Bates last Friday.

Miss Mamie Thomas visited friends in Independence last week and now has one of her schoolmates, Mrs. Elmstone and little son of Ind. T. visiting her.

Mrs. R. S. Thomas was called to Booneville Monday on account of the death of her nephew.

Houston Brothers shipped two carloads of hogs to St. Louis Monday.

Dr. E. J. Hunt presided the annual G. A. R. Memorial sermon Sunday morning at the M. E. church.

Chas. Lunbeck is giving his residence a new coat of paint.

A Significant Prayer

"May the Lord help you make Bucklen's Arnica Salve known to all," writes J. G. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. It quickly took the pain out of a felon for me and cured it in a wonderfully short time. Best on earth for sores, burns and wounds. 25c. at P. H. Franklin's drug store.

NEW HOME

Mr and Mrs John Dierking and family were Sunday guests of Mr and Mrs Willis McKinney and family.

Mr and Mrs A P Reager, of Elmwood, were guests of Mr and Mrs J R Laughlin Sunday.

Mr and Mrs D Lemon, and daughter, Mrs Guyton spent Sunday with Mr and Mrs A K Lemon.

Miss Dora Harris spent Sunday with Miss Mayme Bentley.

Mrs A W and J W Forbes attended preaching at Blackburn Sunday.

Mrs John Fordham spent Saturday night with Mrs Jim Harris near Cretcher, who is very ill at this writing.

Misses Grace Larus, Maude Harris and Beale Knott were guests of Miss Mollie Durnil Saturday night and Sunday.

Business affairs are quite rushing at this writing.

The Annual Reunion will be held at Pleasant near Elmwood the second Sunday in June. Rev Barbee will deliver two sermons, one in the morning and one in the afternoon; everybody go with well filled baskets and enjoy yourselves.

Will Harris and little daughter, Hazel, of Ames, Okla., came in Tuesday to attend the burial of Mrs J R Harris near Cretcher. He returned the last of the week.

Mrs W R Larus and Mrs Mandy Souders of Pettis county, attended the burial Tuesday and spent Tuesday night with Mr and Mrs John Fordham.

Improper action of the kidneys causes backache, lumbago, rheumatism. "Fruitee" is a kidney remedy that will relieve these diseases. Pleasant to take and guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. "Fruitee" in every store. Sold by P. H. Franklin.

RIVER VIEW

Henry Barham and Otto Roberts were among those who saw the base ball game at Nelson Sunday.

J. E. Housh, who has daughter, visited at the home of Mrs. Doolittle near Glasgow Sunday.

Wood Johnson of Saline Valley was here Friday.

The Marshall Book of Arrangements, published by the Chamber of Commerce, is now on sale at the Chamber of Commerce, Marshall, Mo.

THE BEST TAILORING IS NOT EXTRAVAGANCE

It is worth what you have to pay for it. It is worth more if you cannot get it for less. The best clothing in the world is not a bit too good for YOU. It is the

BEST INVESTMENT

a man can make. You can buy that class of merchandise here, and the probability that SOME don't believe it does not affect the FACT a particle. The creations of the

Stein-Bloch Co., and the Great Kirschbaum Co. Tailor Shops are identical to the least detail of the half dozen supreme custom tailors in America, in drape, fabric and deftness of finish; they are made by the best artist in this country. They are not made quickly. The point is, all the waiting has been done: we have them in all the leading patterns and styles. Polite and competent salesmen to show you and fit them on, at $30.00 to $12.50. Every day you don't do it is a LOST DAY TO YOU!

READY FOR YOU,

Best Values

Rose & Buckner

Best Service

Biggest Shoe and Clothing Store in Marshall.

were: Harry Johnson, J. L. Mattix, C. R. Shepard and Jesse Hensick. Dickie Heuman spent Saturday the guest of David Davidson near Clay Center.

W. H. Wood, K. E. Stone, Misses Lee and Laleta Lawless, of Arrow Rock, I. P. Neff and wife, of Harde-man, were supper guests at the home of Jesse Hensick's Thursday evening.

Mrs. W. L. Davidson and Miss Ore attended the funeral of Mrs. M. M. Wilhite at Fish Creek Saturday.

Measles are said to be in this community at present.

He Fought at Gettysburg

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes:

"Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Great tonic for the aged and female weaknesses. Great elevating and body building cure for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by P. H. Franklin druggist. 50c.

NAPTON

Clay Arnold, accused of riding a horse belonging to Mrs. E. J. Steele and turning it loose near Houstonia, was taken before Squire Payne Monday and bound over to the July term of criminal court.

Mat Townsend and wife, of Fresno, Cal., spent Sunday with J. J. Hall and family.

Ernest Harvey R. F. D. carrier at Arrow Rock was a caller at the post-office Monday.

Miss Luella Thompson, of Harde-man, spent Sunday and Monday with Mrs. Mary Shackelford.

The ladies of the Baptist church will serve an ice cream supper on Wednesday evening, June 5th, at the home of E. E. Howard, in Napton.

S. E. Green, who has been sick for some time is able to go around now.

CASTORIA

The Marshall Book of Arrangements, published by the Chamber of Commerce, is now on sale at the Chamber of Commerce, Marshall, Mo.

SALINE POINT

The farmers are about through planting corn.

We are now having rather cool weather for this time of the year.

The young folks enjoyed themselves very pleasantly at a social given at Jim Chilcott's last Thursday evening.

Some of the young ladies from this side were over at Dewitt visiting Saturday.

Amos Moore and his sister have returned from Oklahoma to make their home with their sister, Mrs. John Dilley.

We understand that Charlie Jones called on his best girl Sunday.

Emil Jennings' folks were callers at Scott Irvine's Sunday evening.

The boys played their first baseball game Sunday afternoon.

We wonder why Wallace didn't go all the way Saturday.

Joe Burdette returned to Kirksville, Monday after a short visit with his parents at this place.

Miss Ida Burdette is spending the week with Mrs. Leta Guyler.

We think there will be plenty of fish here on the market now as Ben Barnes and Charlie Mayfield are fishing.

Cheap John went to St. Louis Monday to buy a new stock of goods.

A Hard Debt to Pay

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by P. H. Franklin druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

WAVERLY BOTTOMS "HONKY TONK"

Mrs. Nellie Byars spent last Wednesday with Mrs. Ollie Earp.

The farmers are about done planting corn.

Miss Ida Burdette is spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. F. Demos.

Lawson Byars and wife and children spent Sunday with John Earp and family.

Mr. Yowell and wife spent Sunday with Jerry Cooper and family.

David Winfrey and wife spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. William Ford.

Mrs. Smallwood of Dover spent Thursday until Saturday with the Byars family.

LA CROSSE LUMBER CO'S READY MIXED PAINTS

Leads the rest. Stands the test. Proves the best.

OREARVILLE

Miss Lula Talbert, of Slater, spent Saturday and Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. Ollie Neff.

Allie Soper was a Slater visitor Saturday.

B. J. Orear who has been quite sick is reported some better at this writing.

Miss Susie Copeland, of Miami, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Frank Auer.

Mrs. Delia Pugh, of Slater, spent Saturday and Sunday with her father, J. A. Johnson.

Miss Nellie Keyton, of Slater, is spending a few days with Miss Ione Leisner this week.

Rev. Hutley is to preach for us again at the Baptist church next Sunday June 2nd.

Mrs. Edwin Nugen and children of Norton, were visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity Sunday.

Rev. E. A. Hunter delivered two good sermons at the M. E. church Sunday morning and evening.

W. T. Bourroughs and family moved to their new home in Marshall last Tuesday.

We have anticipated the car shortage, that you have heard so much about, bought heavily from the east with a view to have the lumber loads you want in the city at once.

Send in and look us over at La Crosse Lumber Co.

SWEET SPRINGS

David E. Smith went to Jefferson City Monday where he will take a civil service examination.

Miss Clara Bertram, of California, Mo., is visiting Miss Nora Hoffman this week.

Misses Mamie and Dollie Dierking are in Marshall attending the summer school at Mo. Valley College.

Among those who left Sweet Springs on Monday for Jamestown exposition were N. M. Cooper, Geo. M. Smith and Miss Elizabeth Goggin. Miss Goggin has been appointed Maid of Honor to the Confederate Reunion to be held at Richmond Va. on May 30th.

Mrs. James R. Harris died Monday at her home about five miles north of town. She leaves two small children.

Miss Ada Noel went to Lincoln on Tuesday morning where she will spend the summer with her grandmother, Mrs. Call.

Miss Florence V. Smith is in Warrensburg this week attending the closing exercises of the Normal and visiting old schoolmates and other friends.

Shirley Horner, of Alma, is visiting his grandfather, J. T. Goodwin.

A. A. Smith came down from Kansas City Sunday night and is with his father, Postmaster Smith.

Mrs. G. M. Hagan is visiting relatives in Booneville.

Mrs. Daniel Bixler, of Elmwood, was in town Tuesday shopping.

Carpet and Rug Weaving

I have the latest and best weaving machine and am prepared to make carpets and rugs at reasonable prices. Also sell them.

Mrs. Beale Mount, (indd) Blue Lick, Mo.

Orders can be left with Taylor Department Store, Marshall.

CRETCHER

Mrs. Nan Gibson, of Sturgeon, Mo. was paralyzed last Friday morning. She is a sister of Mrs. George Masters near Herndon.

John Van Buskirk is suffering with heart disease and is not much better at this writing.

John Treese left the 21st of this month for New Mexico to see his sister, Mrs. Hall, who is very low.

On last Monday evening as J. W. Wilcox and son, Farley were going to J. P. Wilson's the ax that they had along dropped to the ground and Farley got off and picked it up and the handle caught in the wheel as he started to get on the wagon and the edge of the ax struck his cheek and chin inflicting a painful wound.

Miss Grace Cretcher visited Ethel Wilson Sunday.

Miss Flora Harrison returned home Sunday after a three weeks' visit at Houstonia.

Misses Flora Miller, Edna Ake-man and Ethel Cox visited Mrs. Riley Dickerson's Sunday.

Rev. Carter will administer the ordinance of baptism the Second Sunday in June to those who have joined the church at Antioch this spring.

TWICE-A-WEEK REPUBLIC

Three Years for One Dollar.

The Twice-A-Week REPUBLIC, of St. Louis, Mo., the oldest and best known semi-weekly newspaper in the United States, is making the remarkable subscription offer of three full years for $1—312 eight-page papers. The offer is good until May 31, 1907. Tell your friends of this opportunity to get a semi-weekly three whole years for $1. If you are already a subscriber, your order will be accepted now for a renewal to begin when your present subscription expires. Remember, a dollar before June 1 pays for three years. Send all order to The Republic, St. Louis, Mo.

SALT SPRINGS

Corn planting is nearly completed and the farmers are waiting for it to grow.

Mrs. J. Q. Ruff and children, Mrs. L. E. Benedict, Mrs. James Dysart and daughter, Miss Anna, visited in our community last week.

The Salt Springs Ladies Aid Society met last week with Mrs. Walker Baker.

A. H. Orr shipped a car of hogs to Kansas City last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Fulkerson attended the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Cherry, of Kansas City. They returned home Monday morning.

W. E. Bauer, and sister, Mrs. Ella Laughlin and son, Dean, and Daisy Reed visited in Nelson a few days this week.

Mrs. Sam Dowden, of Kansas City, is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. E. Dingley, this week.

Mrs. Richardson, of Gil- liam, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Fulkerson a few days this week.

Mrs. Chas. Brown and Mrs. H. E. Dingley attended the Mt. Leonard Missionary Society Tuesday.

F. M. Bauer and L. A. Brown attended services in Mt. Leonard Sunday evening.

Miss Anna Koch is visiting friends in Henry county this week.

Have You a Friend?

Then tell him about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Tell him how it cured your hard cough. Tell him why you always keep it in the house. Tell him to ask his doctor about it. Doctors use a great deal of it for throat and lung troubles.

"I had a terrible cold and cough and was unable to do my work. I used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and in a few days I was completely cured. It is a wonderful remedy for all kinds of coughs and colds."—J. W. B. Smith, Boston, Mass.

Ayer's

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold everywhere.